Introduction

This adaptable discussion guide is designed to help groups of parents and carers take part in the National Discussion on Scottish Education.

This resource should help you to create spaces where parents and carers can consider, discuss and reflect on the future of Scottish Education.

Please look at the options and decide how you might use (or adapt) them to meet the needs and interests of your group.

Everyone's voice matters

Each one of us brings rich experiences, skills and knowledge to the discussion.

Plus, a 2006 Act of Scottish Parliament gives parents and carers right to be meaningfully involved and engaged in the life their child's school. (Scottish Schools (Parental Involvement) Act 2006)

Because of this, we have some questions we'd like you to consider and want to hear all your voices in each part of the discussion today.

Session 1: Parent and Carer Voice

This session will support participants to consider questions 1 to 8.

You are welcome to reply to any or all of the questions. What's important is that you have the chance to have your say and can reflect deeply on the topics that matter most to you.

What happens next?

Education plays a key role in finding solutions to global and local challenges and in making sure children's rights are respected. That's why we need to listen carefully to you – whether you are a learner, parent, teacher, practitioner or someone who has an interest in the future of education.

Your response will be independently analysed alongside all other responses to contribute to an inclusive and exciting future vision for Scottish Education.

Follow #TalkScottishEducation on Twitter or Instagram to keep up with the discussion.

The discussion will conclude on 5th Dec 2022. We look forward to reporting back to you in Spring 2023 on the vision you've informed.
