PART 1: CONSULTATION ON DRAFT REGULATIONS TO TRANSFER THE FUNCTIONS AND MEMBERS OF THE PRIVATE RENTED HOUSING PANEL AND HOMEOWNER HOUSING PANEL (AND THEIR ASSOCIATED COMMITTEES) TO THE FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL FOR SCOTLAND

1. This consultation seeks your views on draft regulations to transfer the functions and members of the Private Rented Housing Panel (prhp), the Private Rented Housing Committee (prhc), the Homeowner Housing Panel (hohp) and the Homeowner Housing Committee (hohc) to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland.

Background

2. The Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014 (“the 2014 Act”) creates a new, simplified statutory framework for tribunals in Scotland, bringing existing tribunal jurisdictions together and providing a structure for new jurisdictions. The Act creates two tribunals, the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland and the Upper Tribunal for Scotland, known collectively as the Scottish Tribunals.
3. The 2014 Act also provides for Chambers within the First-tier Tribunal into which existing tribunals listed in Schedule 1 of the Act and their associated functions and members can be transferred.
4. The prhc/hohc are listed in Schedule 1 of the 2014 Act. Due to changes in legislation the Act is also being amended to include references to the prhp/hohp in the Schedule. This was subject to a recent consultation which concluded on 28 July 2015 and no objections were made to the making of these amendments.
5. Section 28(2) of the 2014 Act provides the power for the Scottish Ministers to make regulations to transfer the functions of the listed tribunals in Schedule 1 of the 2014 Act, to the First-tier Tribunal only; the Upper Tribunal only; or to the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal.
6. Schedule 2 (see section 29) of the 2014 Act provides the power for the Scottish Ministers to make regulations to transfer the members from the listed tribunals to hold particular positions/membership in the First-tier or Upper Tribunals.
7. Schedule 9, paragraph 2(2) (also see section 81) of the 2014 Act provides the power for the Scottish Ministers to make regulations for the procedural rules of a listed tribunal that are in force immediately before the transfer to have effect for the purposes of either or both the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal.

The Private Rented Housing Panel and Committees

8. The prhp was created by the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 which renamed the Rent Assessment Committees as the prhp. The prhp provides an appeal route for private tenants who believe that their landlord has not met the necessary repairing standard. If the prhp accepts the tenant's appeal this is referred to a committee, drawn from Panel members and called the prhc.

Extension of the prhp's jurisdiction

9. The Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 allows Local Authorities to apply to the prhp for a determination on whether the landlords' repairing standard is being met. It also allows landlords to apply to the [prhc] for assistance in gaining entry to a property in order to carry out the necessary repairs. These provisions extend the jurisdiction of the prhp and are subject to separate secondary legislation which is not yet in force. The draft regulations therefore allow for necessary amendments to this legislation as appropriate.

The Homeowner Housing Panel and Committees

10. The Property Factors (Scotland) Act 2011 created the hohp. The hohp enables homeowners to apply to the hohp for a determination of whether their property factor has carried out their property factor duties or complied with the property factor's code of conduct.

Draft Regulations

11. The policy intent is for tribunals to transfer into the Scottish Tribunals structure with their existing membership and functions in so far as practicable. Upon transfer, the prhp/hohp and their committees will be abolished and thereafter first decisions will be heard in the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland, Housing and Property Chamber with onward appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland.
12. The draft regulations contained in Annexes A and B provide for:
 - the transfer of functions of the prhp/prhc and the hohp/hohc to the Scottish Tribunals;
 - Transitional arrangements to regulate how cases pending, in progress and new cases will be dealt with;
 - Consequential amendments and repeals required in light of the transfer of functions;
 - the transfer of the President and members of the prhp/hohp to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland;

- the current procedural rules of the prhc/hohc to continue to apply (subject to appropriate amendment) post transfer.

13. The draft regulations are attached at Annexes A and B.

Transitional arrangements

14. We propose that from 1st September 2016 all applications to the prhp and hohp will transfer to the First-tier Tribunal. Cases in progress on the day of transfer will be continued in the First-tier Tribunal. If a hearing is in progress then it will be completed by the First-tier Tribunal comprised of the same members, where possible. Time limits which have started to run prior to commencement of these regulations and have not expired shall continue to apply.
15. If a party wishes to appeal a decision of the prhp or hohp but has not exercised this right before 1st September 2016 then we propose the appeal route will be to the Upper Tribunal as opposed to the Sheriff Court where appeals are currently heard. We propose that if a party has already exercised their right of appeal before 1st September 2016 then this will be heard by the Sherriff Court.

Transfer of members

16. The policy intent is for existing members of both panels to transfer into the First-tier Tribunal as long as they meet the relevant eligibility criteria. The eligibility criteria for legal and ordinary members of the Housing and Property Chamber is the subject of a separate consultation which closes on 9 October 2015.¹
17. The draft Regulations propose that legal members of the prhp/hohp will transfer in as legal members of the First-tier Tribunal, Housing and Property Chamber. Housing and Surveyor members will transfer in as ordinary members of the Chamber. Members terms and conditions are subject to requirements laid out in Schedule 7 and 8 of the 2014 Act but otherwise it is proposed that existing terms and conditions are to be preserved.
18. In accordance with provisions set out in the 2014 Act (Schedule 9, paragraph 11), which adds tribunal members to the judicial officers who are subject to the retirement provisions set out in the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, tribunal members will be required to retire at age 70, with the possibility of reappointment on an annual basis until reaching the age of 75. Therefore, existing members will only be eligible to transfer-in to the First-tier Tribunal if they are under the age of 75. Members who are over 70 will only be able to transfer-in to the First-tier Tribunal with the approval of the Housing and Property Chamber President and appointment will be reviewed on an annual basis until the member reaches 75.

19. We propose that the current President of the prhp/hohp will transfer into the position of Chamber President of the Housing and Property Chamber. At present we feel there is no need for a Deputy President of the Chamber. We intend to rely on provisions in the 2014 Act which allows the President of the Scottish Tribunals to assign a Temporary Chamber President to cover a vacancy should the Chamber President become incapacitated or resign.

Amendments to existing procedural rules

20. As the prhp and hohp already have comprehensive procedural rules in place there is no requirement to produce new rules for the First-tier Tribunal Housing and Property Chamber. Rather the draft Regulations contain provisions to amend existing rules as required to ensure consistency amongst the tribunals within the Chamber.
21. In particular, the draft Regulations will amend existing hohp rules to allow the First-tier Tribunal to review a decision in the interests of justice, such as where there has been an administrative error.
22. The rules are also proposed to be amended to allow the tribunal to award expenses against a party if they have been unreasonable and caused the other party unnecessary or unreasonable expenses.
23. We also propose to amend the prhp rules to introduce a 30 day time limit for appeals from the First-tier Tribunal to the Upper Tribunal, including a requirement to ask for permission to appeal, to keep it consistent with the provisions in the hohp rules.
24. The appeal route for both the prhp and hohp will be amended so as appeals are made to the Upper Tribunal. The aim is to keep tribunal business within the tribunal system and out of the courts.

Q2: Are you content with the provisions regarding transitional arrangements?

Q3: Are you content with the provisions relating to the transfer of members?

PART 2: CONSULTATION ON DRAFT REGULATIONS THAT DETERMINE THE COMPOSITION OF THE FIRST-TIER & UPPER TRIBUNAL FOR SCOTLAND WHEN HEARING CASES IN AND FROM THE HOUSING AND PROPERTY CHAMBER

1. This consultation seeks your views on draft regulations that determine the composition of the First-tier Tribunal when hearing Private Rented Sector and Letting Agent Cases and the Upper Tribunal when hearing appeals from the Housing and Property Chamber.

2. Background

3. Section 38 and 40 of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014 (the “2014 Act”) allows the Scottish Ministers to determine the composition of the First-tier and Upper Tribunals for Scotland. This includes whether a case is heard by a single member or by two or more members and whether a case is to be heard by ordinary, legal or judicial members.
4. The first tribunals that will transfer-in to the Scottish Tribunals are the Private Rented Housing Panel (prhp) and the Homeowner Housing Panel (hohp). The draft transfer of functions regulations set out in Annexes A and B allow for the composition of members hearing cases in these tribunals to remain the same when transferred-in to the First-tier Tribunal and therefore the regulations at Annex C only apply to these tribunals in so far as appeals from the prhp and hohp to the Upper Tribunal.

5. Tribunals affected by these regulations

6. The Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 establishes two new tribunals whose functions are conferred directly on the First-tier Tribunal. These are the jurisdiction for civil cases relating to the private rented sector (the PRS tribunal), which will transfer from the sheriff court²– broadly speaking these comprise applications relating to tenancies and occupancy agreements. The First-tier Tribunal will also handle cases regarding alleged failure to comply with the new letting agent code of practice³ (Letting Agents tribunal).

7. DRAFT REGULATIONS

8. The draft regulations apply to the composition of members when hearing cases within the First-tier Tribunal, Housing and Property Chamber, PRS and Letting Agents jurisdictions and all appeals from the First-tier Tribunal Housing and Property Chamber to the Upper Tribunal.
9. The draft regulations at Annex C propose that the First-tier Tribunal, when convened to hear PRS and Letting Agent cases, will be composed of a legal member alone, a legal member with one ordinary member, or a legal member with two ordinary members, as the Chamber President feels fitting for the particular type of case.

² section 16 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014

10. For appeals from the First-tier Tribunal, Housing and Property Chamber the regulations propose that these will be heard, in the majority of cases, by a full-time sheriff sitting in the Upper Tribunal. Section 17(2)(c) of the 2014 Act disallows part-time sheriffs from sitting in the Upper Tribunal.
11. It is also proposed that the President of the Scottish Tribunals has the right to choose the Chamber President of the Housing and Property Chamber to sit in the Upper Tribunal should they consider that there is a particular expertise required to hear a case. The Chamber President will be able to sit alone or with a sheriff. The draft regulations specify that this would only be possible if the Chamber President had not been involved previously with the initial decision making in the First-tier Tribunal.
12. Section 16(2)(b) of the 2014 Act disallows Temporary Chamber Presidents from sitting in the Upper Tribunal.

QUESTIONS ON COMPOSITION

Q1: Do you have any comments on the draft regulations on Composition?

Q2: Do you have any views on the proposed composition for the Housing and Property Chamber hearing Private Rented Sector and Letting Agent cases?

Q3: Do you have any comments on the proposed composition of the Upper Tribunal hearing appeals from the Housing and Property Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal?

Do you have any other comments you wish to make?
